RECOVER LOSSES

Influence of Bank Statement Not Sufficient to Regain Ground Lost Earlier.

MODERATE LOAN EXPANSION

Movements of Stock During Day Were Trivial-U. S. Steel Notably Firm.

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, Aug. 5 .- Prices lost ground in the early trading to-day and did no entirely recover in the stiffening of values which followed the appearance of the bank statement. The statement showed all of the expected decrease in cash but the moderate loan expansion of $1,-8)6,300 proved much less formidable than had been anticipated. It is sufficient, however, to cross by a margin of a couple of hundred thousand dollars the largest previous record touched by the New York clearing house banks loans in October of last year. The surplus reserve item at the same time is reduced to $12.183,125, compared with $55,308,859 at this time last year and $21,687,075 two years ago. This showing explains the undercurrent of anxiety regarding the money outlook with the period of the interior demand for currency approaching, which is only partly quieted by the extreme case prevailing up to this time in the money market.

The movements of the day were trivial throughout. United States Steel preferret was notably firm and touched 105, thus extending by 1-8 the march of its record price. The fact that the quarterly dividend is to come off the price of the stock Monday was offered to explain its firmness. The total sales of bonds par value Excunted to $1,928,000. DRY GOODS MARKETS, NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—The dry goods market to-day was strong and prices were well maintained. Higher cotton prices have placed the producers in an unfavorable position inasmuch as their stock of theap cotton is reported to be small, and it is claimed that they would suffer a loss in marketing their goods at ruling figures and buying raw material to-day. A satisfactory price is beliag secured, hewever, on a fair proportion of cotton goods lines.

and the nights were from to to be degrees cooler.

The Shah's departure on Thursday removed the only unusual feature of midsummer life in the capital.

During the last days of his visit the Shah drove often in the Bois, creating amusement by snapshooting persons near him and posing members of his suite in groups pleasing to the royal eye.

One day the Shah saw several pretty women and sent a messenger to ask them to pose. The women, much pleased, them to pose. The women, much pleased, consented, and when they got near the consented, and when they got hear the Shah recognized one as Mine. Georges Do Reuaer, wife of the correspondent of the Persian Bank in London. During the entire visit the Shah only once left his hotel without an escort of mounted Garde Republicaine. Now he's gone, the streets seem truly described. The only persons recognized on the boulevards and in the Channes Elysees are Americans. The

Mr. A. J. Pitkin, with Mrs. and Miss Pitkin, have started on a tour in the chateau district, after which they go to the Black Forest and Switzerland.
